TUESDAY, APRIL 22, 1876.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

Indianapolis dispatches say it is not known that Landers, the governor, will endorse the greenback platform.

A World's Buffalo special says the people of the State are overwhelmingly for Tilden, and that nine-tenths of the Democrats are pledged to the Governor.

Harrison, ex-State Senator, accidentally killed himself with a pistol yesterday at Richmond, Ky.

A dispatch from Lisbon reports the death of the Princess Isabella, aunt of Dom Pedro. She was regent of Portugal during the childhood of her niece.

The Treasury up to this time has paid out in fractional currency over $20,000 in silver coin.

The city National bank of Chicago failed yesterday morning.

At Borden, Cal., yesterday morning a shooting affair took place wherein a Spaniard named Miguel Valencia was shot and killed by J. E. Griffith, a blacksmith by occupation.

The Times says that Bristow is recognized as the representative of the reform sentiment of his party. His claim to this position grows stronger steadily.

The Tribune's Philadelphia special says that the Committee has finished its investigation of the naval affairs. The developments are unknown, but the Committee express great satisfaction.

The Republican delegates from Massachusetts thus far are nearly equally divided between Blaine and Brewster. The best organization is for Blaine, but the people are more for Brewster.

A report has reached Leavenworth that a family of five persons from Pennsylvania were massacred by the Indians near Custer City.

Of the three men wounded at the Red Can massacre, near Laramie, two have died.

A Madrid dispatch says that the Spanish Government has consented to suspend the collection of the tax on the tobacco, and the bill of the soldiers upon the English residents while negotiations with Great Britain on the subject are pending.

The Times Washington correspondent says that Bristow refuses to surrender the original papers of his department to the various Congressional Committees, or to any one else, though willing to allow them to see them at the department. This action is the result of a cabinet meeting, because of Stone's refusal to return documents on Monday.

Blaine will ask the House for permission to make a personal explanation, wherein he will answer the charges recently made against him relative to the railroad bonds.

The World's Washington correspondent says that Davenport failed in his testimony to convince the Committee that his huge expenditures were proper. Even the Republican members do not deny it, and are willing to concede that there have been gross irregularities in the matter of vouchers.

Dom Pedro is expected to arrive in San Francisco to-morrow.

Silver was 97 in San Francisco on Saturday. Norton McMichael, of the Philadelphia North American says Conkling can not have Pennsylvania's vote at Cincinnati.

The St. Louis Globe Democrat's Leavenworth special says: News from the seat of Indian troubles in Big Horn county is to the effect that the Cheyennes are broken up into small bands for marauding purposes. A party of miners had a fight with one of these bands the day before yesterday in which one Indian was killed and two miners were wounded.

The impeachment trial will probably close by the Senate admitting Belknap's plea of want of jurisdiction.

GOVERNOR IRWIN has appointed ROBERT FERRAL Judge of the new Criminal Court, of San Francisco. It is an excellent appointment besides being a merited compliment to a worthy gentleman and an able lawyer.

HON. JAMES L. ENGLISH of Sacramento is named as one of the probable delegates at large to the Democratic National Convention. He is a life long Democrat, a man of fine ability and esteemed and respected by all who know him. With a delegation made up of such men as Mr. ENGLISH, California will give a good account of herself in the National Convention.

On the 8th inst. in the House of Representatives Hon. WILLIAM A. PIPER, of San Francisco, delivered an able speech on the impolicy of government subsidies to railroads. It is replete with arguments, facts and figures against the too common custom of taxing the people for the benefit of private corporations, which we commend to those of this city who are endeavoring to induce the people of Los Angeles county to vote Senator JONES a subsidy of $600,000.

INCLINATION TO EXTREMES.

On questions of interest—especially those of a political complexion—the people of the United States are inclined to run to extremes. On no one subject is this predilection more strongly illustrated than that of railroad corporations and no State in the Union presents a stronger individual illustration of this peculiarity than California. Fifteen years ago we were willing and anxious to pledge every dollar's worth of our property—to make any sacrifice to secure the building of a trans-continental road, and for the development of a railroad system throughout our State. The desire for railroads was so earnest and intense that we did not hesitate—nay, we even petitioned for opportunities to impose railroad subsidy taxes on towns, counties and the State. That in some instances we were more generous than wise—more liberal than our means would justify—cannot, perhaps, be denied; but when we calmly compare what we have gained by means of the railroads built through our assistance with what we all know would have been our condition without those roads, we are at a loss to determine whether we have not acted wisely after all. But in time we began to drift toward the other extreme, and once the current fairly set in that direction it was not long until denunciation of railroads and railroad corporations was the path selected by newspaper writers and politicians as the one most likely to lead to the apex of popular favor. By this path a majority of the Legislature reached the capital, and through this anti-railroad majority NEWTON BOOTH lifted himself to a seat in the United States Senate. But with the touching of the anti-railroad bank the waves began to recede, and now at the close of another session of the Legislature we find ourselves midway of the stream, quietly riding in conservative water. From one side is heard the faint cry of anti-railroad fanatics, while from the other we behold as the fruits of our railroad system, progress and development such as no other State in the Union can exhibit within a like period of time. With our railroads have come towns, farms, population and taxable wealth. In ten years the locomotive has carried us to a point that would have taken the old time methods of locomotion fifty years to reach. The people comprehend the situation, and we venture the prediction that the day is near at hand when even our Legislature will recognize the building and operating of railroads as a legitimate business deserving both protection and encouragement from the State.

THE TIMES.

One of the answers to the hard times croakers which one meets on the streets almost every day, that cannot be controverted, is that no city or locality on the Pacific coast is more prosperous or evinces a healthier business tone than Los Angeles does today. We doubt if there is a city in the United States of like population that shows more activity and enterprise than ours. Times are hard everywhere. We have been traveling too fast. Expenses have not been gauged by the income. No effort has been made to balance the earnings with the expenditures. A change of policy must be made or general bankruptcy will follow. These remarks apply to the whole Pacific slope—as much to any other place as to Los Angeles. But we are as well if not better off than our neighbors and we are fast recovering from the effects of the money panic which originated with the suspension of the Bank of California and culminated with the collapse of the Bank of TEMPLE & WORKMAN. There is now an abundance of money in the market and borrowers are accommodated on reasonable terms. Our bank deposits are steadily increasing, the demand for real estate grows day by day, there seems to be no falling off in building enterprise and trade is prosperous and steady. The season has been propitious and we have assurance of abundant crops. With the completion of the railroad between this city and San Francisco, an event that will transpire between the first and fifteenth of September, we shall realize a business impetus never before felt here and with the close of the summer we shall be able to note a degree of prosperity as gratifying to the community as, to the croakers, it is unexpected. We would suggest to those gentlemen who complain of hard times in Los Angeles that a visit to some other locality would induce the belief that times are something harder elsewhere.

It is alleged that this statement comes from a Democratic source, and the Call congratulates itself upon this fact. Wherever the estimate originates it is very erroneous in some particulars. California may be regarded as for the Democracy by her six votes, Nevada is certain with her three votes, for the reason, if for no other, that her people are disgusted with the manner in which a non-resident millionaire, politically incompetent, fraudulently obtained a seat in the United States Senate, and although Colorado, under the late State issue, has succeeded, through the influence of government patronage and the use of such means as are characteristic of the methods of the present Administration, in obtaining an enabling act to secure two more Radical members of the United States Senate, it cannot be denied that the mass of her citizens are Democratic in their sentiments. Therefore we count on three more votes for the Democracy. In a Presidential campaign Connecticut is generally pretty certain with her six votes for the Democratic candidate. This would give us according to the above estimate, which we accept with these exceptions, one hundred and thirty-six votes in the electoral college. We will predict that our estimate is nearer correct than that of the Call.

N. GREEN CURTIS.

It is understood that prominent Democrats have imported N. Green Curtis, of this city, to become a candidate for Congress from the Second Congressional District at the fall election, and that he has partially consented to allow them to use his name for that position.

One of our Sacramento exchanges—the Bee or Record—gives publicity as above to the desire of many voters of both the Democratic and Republican parties of the Second District, that N. GREEN CURTIS shall accept the nomination of the Democratic party for Congress. We can only express our regret that we have not an opportunity of voting for him. If the people of the Union only knew N. GREEN CURTIS as we know him they would gladly elect him to any position to which he might aspire. He is the soul of honor, full of charity, full of dignity, and full of all the attributes that contribute to the creation of a great American. If he is selected to represent his district in Congress, the country will have cause to rejoice, and the first time he is called to the chair to relieve the Speaker his ability will be made manifest to all.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.—At the pigeon shooting match of the Hit or Miss Club on the Bay District track yesterday, Lyngren was victor, killing eleven single birds out of twenty.

Andrew Shubridge, while passing Dewitt's saloon on the corner of Sacramento and Dupont streets yesterday morning at four o'clock was pulled inside the bar room by two men, while a third rifled his pockets of a considerable amount of money. The Police arrested all three men, who were identified as Thomas Smith, Frederick J. Hayes and Frank Dewitt. The latter is well known to the Police as a keeper of a deadfall on Third street, in which a man named Hopkins instantly killed a man some time since over a game of cards.

An excursion around the Bay in honor of Frederick Smyth and E. A. Straw, ex-Governor of New Hampshire, and P. C. Cheney, present Governor, of that State, took place yesterday in the steamer Milen Griffith. The party was accompanied by Leonard Stanford, Peter Donohue, A. P. Bacon and others.

W. McIntosh, head accountant of the London and San Francisco Bank, resigned his position Saturday, having purchased a seat in the San Francisco Board of Brokers. The employees of the Bank presented Mr. McIntosh with a splendid watch and chain on his retirement.

D. O'Leary has been challenged to a trial of power of endurance by a Chicago pedestrian, a German named H. Schnell. Last month in Chicago he accomplished the feat of walking 500 miles in 142 hours and some minutes. O'Leary's time in this city was 139 hours 32 minutes. Schnell is said to be possessed of wonderful power of endurance. The terms are for 500 miles $2,000 a side; the match to take place in San Francisco next month. O'Leary goes into training at once and will exercise on the ocean beach near the Cliff House. Schnell left Chicago for this city.

Two boys, one nine and the other seven years old, were arrested yesterday for carrying a revolver almost as big as himself, and the other for stealing some clothing.

Captain Moreno, in command of three fishing boats, and a number of fishermen start on a trip around the Bay to-night to capture the Chinese fisherman who are constantly breaking the laws relating to nets.

A shooting match yesterday at Bruno between teams of three men from the first and second regiments, resulted in a victory for the first named. The distance was 200 yards and ten shots each—Credmore system. The first team scored 481 points, and the second 472 out of possible 600.

A series of competition shooting matches will soon be inaugurated for places in a team of five to be pitted against the same number from the Virginia City company.

The Summer Guard will accept Gen. Batterman's challenge when it is made in a formal manner.

The Emmet Guard had a picnic at San Jose yesterday, going and returning on the Southern Pacific railroad. The scenes of the return trip were of the most disgraceful character. Notwithstanding the efforts of members of the company and policemen, fights were going on all the time. Young boys and girls were drunk and committed acts of an indecent character. It was only by the free use of clubs of muskets and policemen's clubs that the hoodlums were kept in any kind of order.

A man named Patrick Owens, 61 years old, committed suicide Sunday morning by taking laudanum.

In an interview published to-day, James C. Flood, of the Bonanza firm, charges the late continued depression in the stock market to James R. Keene and a number of other brokers who have pooled to break the market.

Silver coin is scarce at two to three per cent. discount. There is scarcely anything doing in trade dollars, heavy holders refusing to sell. Their nominal price is five per cent. discount, but a large lot could be placed on better terms.

James E. Ryan has been on trial all day for assault to murder policeman W. P. Brown, in 1872. The facts of the case as Judge Dr. win in his opening argument said he expected to prove, were that on the night of the fourth of December, 1872, Ryan went into a house of ill repute on Dupont street kept by Adile de Beauville, and after remaining a while had some trouble with the proprietress who ordered him out of the house. Ryan refused to leave, and the services of a policeman on that beat, W. P. Brown, were called into requisition. Ryan went mildly enough out of the house but upon reaching the sidewalk sent a bullet through the door and upon Brown emerging from the house fired three shots at him all of which took effect, one in the head and two in the body. Ryan made his escape but the next day was captured and identified by the proprietress of the house as the man who had been ejected by the policeman. A bowie knife and a revolver were found upon the defendant at the time of his arrest.

All about a Woman.

VIRGOLA, Na., 24th.—Last night about 2 o'clock John Dallis, a saloon keeper on C street, was shot and instantly killed by R. H. Caster, alias Bingham, a case keeper at Buckner's faro game. The cause of the trouble was a woman named Kittie Twist, who was at one time Dallis's mistress. It seems she had taken up recently with Caster and was in bed with him when Dallis went to their room and demanded admittance. He was ordered away but returned soon after with a pistol and tried to force his way into the room when Caster opened the door and fired, the ball passing through Dallis's heart. Caster and the woman Twist were taken into custody.

At the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masons, held in San Francisco last week, Dr. H. S. Orme was re-elected Grand Master. He also received the almost unanimous re-election of Grand Councilor of Knights Templar, but declined to serve for another year for the reason that the duties of the office occupied too much of his time. These compliments are bestowed on a worthy gentleman and polished mason.

—AND—

GATHARTIC BITTERS.

A Card to the Public.

THESE Medicines, which are becoming so popular in the Southern portion of this State, are simply beating down all prejudice and opposition as regards their efficacy here, as they have been doing in San Francisco and other places. By their virtues, their irrefragable influences, surely and speedily effected, the most incurable are at once shorn of their doubts. Those who have dreaded and suffered with those excruciating diseases,

May hail with joy the advent in their midst of these wonderful medicines, which the Doctor has labored for years to perfect, as a specific for the above diseases.

You that are suffering at once cast aside your prejudice, derived, and justly, from repeated failures. We ask that your hopes may revive, at least sufficiently to give this medicine one fair trial. We feel bound to do our duty, and in justice to Dr. Clark and the suffering thousands who may read this card, we the undersigned residents of this county and vicinity, most fortunately speak from experience, and we assert most emphatically the efficacy of the above medicines is irrefragable. Our friends, and even strangers, may ponder over these remarks, but if the candid truth from our lips robs them of their incredulity, we will be glad to place them, with kindling hope, under the treatment of Dr. Clark, with his celebrated Family Medicines, we well know that they will accrue from our efforts, and most heartily say

God Speed the Right.
